On-site Electrical Awareness & Safe Isolation for non-technical staff course (One day for up to 12 delegates)	Designed to provide non-technical staff with an understanding of electrical awareness and the requirements that relate to the legislation that must be adhered regarding the safe isolation process that electrical operatives should abide by.	£1,500.00 + VAT
Electrical Compliance Audit Report	This demonstrates that your organisation has undergone a comprehensive audit by an experienced NAPIT auditor to verify whether your records and procedures for assessing and ensuring the electrical safety of the people, places and procedures present in your workplace comply with current legislation, including the Electricity at Work Regulations 1989. This requires a self-assessment checklist to be completed and submitted prior to the audit so that it can be tailored to suit your needs.	£1,500.00 + VAT per day
Independent electrical certificate and report checking	If you are not confident in the accuracy of an Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR) or Electrical Installation Certificate (EIC) that you have received, you can send it to our technical team for review. They will check it against the current standards/guidance notes and send you their verdict.	See table - EICR/EIC Charges table
Independent assessment of the safety and compliance of a domestic electrical installation: on-site visit	If you are concerned about an electrical installation that you have been asked to inspect, or that is situated within a property you own or are responsible for, we can come and carry out an inspection to verify its safety and compliance. This will require an initial electrical compliance visit- following which we will advise whether a full Electrical Safety Report is needed. The inspection and report will be carried out by a fully qualified and competent NAPIT Field Officer, who will use the same codes which are used to complete an Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR) along with photographs. This report will be eligible to be submitted to court.	Half day £895.00 + VAT Full day - £1,500.00 + VAT per day (Both include Electrical Safety Report)
